Grand Naval Procession on the New Water- The Triangular Confest Under the Poughway-The Marblehead in Line -There Are Said to be Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Visitors in Hamburg. Hamburg, June 20.-The feature of his, the second day of the Kiel canal celebrations, was the mauguration cerebrations will occur to-morrow. The ceremony of laying the last atone of the canal and the grand parade of the assembled fleets.

Visitors continue to arrive by thourived yesterday.

At 3 o'clock this morning the despatch boat Grille entered the locks at Bruns- for record smashing. buttel, followed by the Hohenzollern. As the latter passed into the canal a salock, while the soldiery, composed of cavalry, infantry and ploneers, lining both banks, presented arms. At the same time a military band played the German National Anthem. The Grille started first as a scout Then came the Hohenzollern, with the emperor; the Kaiseradler, with the Ger-man kings and grand dukes; the North Berman Llyod steamship Kalser Wil helm II., with the other German princes; the North German Lloyd steamship Trave and the Hamburg-American line teamships Columbia and Augusta Vic-oria, with officials and members of the eichstag. Next came the foreign yachts including the Osborne, the British ad-miralty yacht Enchantress, the Italian acht Savoia, the French despatch boat Surcouf, the Russian Grosjasciji, the United States cruiser Marblehead, the Spanish Alfonso XII., and the Roumanian Mircea. The scene was a memorably brilliant one as the kalser drove along the river front to embark on the Hohenzollern. Every available space was packed with people, and the crowd cheered inces-santly. At 10:30 p. m. every one who was expected to go through the canal on board the Marbiehead was on board that vessel, though she did not leave her berth until 1:10 this morning. Among those on board were Admiral Kirkland and staff, Captain Evans, Captain Shepard, the lieutenants, ensigns and marine officers from each ship of the American squadron, the Rev. Mr. Tripp, chaplain of the cruiser San Fran-cisco, and the fleet surgeon and the fleet paymaster. The Marblehead sailed slowly down the Elbe and anchored at Brunsbuttel, awaiting her turn to go

The weather was perfect when the And weather was percect when the Marblehead, at 9:45, started into the canal, the entrance to which was be-flagged at every possible point.

The Marblehead is very popular, owingto the fact that her officers have shown every possible courtesy to visitors, and she was cheered last even-ing by the occupants of hundreds of steam and electric launches and thousands of people on shore.

The head of the procession is expect d to arrive at Holtenau at about 6 'clock this evening. Kiel, June 20.—The Holtenau Festlats was crowded by II o'clock to-day, and the harbor was teeming with pleasore craft. Though the crowds are enor ous the utmost good nature and the est of order prevail. The pleasure teamboats swarm about the assembled varships, the American boats receivng their full share of attention

The emperor, on board the Hohen-collern, came in sight of the Holtenau if people on the Holtenau Festplatz set p a mighty cheer as the vessel was ighted. Five minutes later she had steamed up to the locks, which she enered at 12:35 o'clock.

The emperor stood high upon the bridge, behind the mainmast, attired a the full unform of an admiral of the ferman navy. The bands of the regular and veteran troops struck up "Hell Dir Riegerkranz," which the kaiser acknowledged by a salute.

At 12:40 all of the ships in the bay fired an imperial salute. On each side of the lock was drawn up a company of the First Foot Guards of Potsdam with a band, and a company of the Kalserin's Fiensburg regiment were lined on the north short in front of the harbor office with the Marine band. The admirals and generals stood upon the center rampart which divides the sections of the lock. The immense rowds kept up continuous cheering as

An Interesting Occasion-

Those who have not already sub scribed to the building fund of the new City Mission house would probably de cide to do so if they had been at Eng lish hall, the present headquarters of the City Missions, Wednesday afternoon. The many baby carriages about the doors were accounted for by the giving of a strawberry ten by the woman's department to the members of the mothers' meeting with their little ones, who could not well be left at

Among the ladies in charge were Mrs. H. B. Sturgess, Mrs. J. M. Peck, Mrs. L. C. Dayton, Miss Fogg and Mrs. William Shepard. An abundance of fine strawberries were served with tea and other refreshments to 125 or more of the mothers and children scated about the tables in the large mission hall Much of the enjoyment of the occasion was due to the efficient services of Miss Hume, the lady missionary, as well as to the many friends who had furnished supplies. Rev. Mr. Mossman, the missionary pastor, made an address and appointed all present missionaries to assist in their own homes and neighborhoods in the work of the City Mission ary association, by inviting others to the many meetings held at the mission hall on Sundays and week evenings through the summer, as well as at other seasons of the year. It was announced that the annual mothers' meeting excursion would be given on Wednesday, July 17, to Lake Saltonstall. Also that a trolley-car party for next week Wednesday to Morris Cove, had been offered to the mothers meeting by the New Haven W. C. T. Union, (No. 1.) who conduct the devotanal service of the weekly mothers meeting once each month. After tea the twenty or thirty little hildren prosent were invited with their nothers to the upper hall where Mrs L. C. Dayton of the Davenport church organized then into a Mission circle, to se one of the many circles of very lit tle children now connected with the Wo man's Board of Foreign Missions, each of the members giving at least a penny a month for the support of a mission kindergarten in Smyrna, Asia Minor.

EDGEWOODS VS. WELCOMES. The Welcomes of Ausonia Will Strive Hard to Defeat the Edgewoods To-day.

noon the crack Edgewood team of Westville, one of the best amateur teams in he state, will meet the Welcomes on the Wood lot grounds, it being the first battle the two have ever had. They ome here prepared to take the game from the local lads, and, on the other hand, the latter are just as confident that they will score a victory. The result is looked forward to by all ad-mirers of baseball in the city. The vistors have already this season played all the cracks throughout the state, in-cluding Danbury, Winsted, Shelton, Milford and such teams, and they have, in most of the games, come out victorious On to-morrow's game, in a great measure, depends the standing of the local team, who, their friends think, if they win, can battle with anything in the state. They will put in their best players, but how the team will be arranged will not be known until they appear on the field.

Next Tuesday afternoon they play a return game with the Edgewoods in their town. Bone, the catcher, will play with the local lads.
